Niki's journal – Friday May 29

I had a great day! It was the last day of school before the summer vacation. My first lesson was at midday, so I got up late. That was good, because I went to a birthday party last night and I didn't go to bed until 2 a.m.

I didn't have time to walk to school, and I was too tired to ride my bike, so I went to the bus stop. But then my neighbor drove past in her car, and she stopped and took me to school, so I got there really quickly.

My first class was great. I sat next to Marie and we wrote a story. I finished early so I checked my e-mails. We didn't get any homework! Then we had a break and I asked Marie about her dinner party. Then we had history. The teacher talked a lot, and the lesson wasn't interesting.

After that I just wanted to have fun and go to the park to relax!
